Swimming pool to go back to Lions?

BELLE GLADE—City officials will meet with members of the Belle Glade Lions Club next Thursday to discuss the Lions' proposed takeover of the Municipal Swimming Pool.

The workshop session was scheduled after City Manager Robert Sanders read a letter to the city commission from Lions Secretary Thomas A. Zitter to Mayor W.R. "Ralph" Kirk.

Zitter told Kirk, who is also a member of the Lions Club, the club wishes to exercise an option in the lease agreement which allows the club to re-purchase the lease for the land on which the pool was built.

The city leased the land from the Lions in 1957 for 99 years and while there is one option clause which would allow the city to buy the land outright at the end of the lease period, it is superseded by another option which allows the club to buy back the lease.

When Commissioner Tom Altman asked City Attorney John Baker, who is also a Lion, if the city has any way of avoiding the option, Baker said there wasn't.

After perusing the lease agreement, a copy of which Sanders brought to the meeting, Baker said the only steps left, if the Lions intend to go through with the option agreement, is agreeing on the price.

According to the option agreement, if there is a disagreement on the lease purchase price, the city and the Lions will each appoint an appraiser and those two appraisers will then appoint a third appraiser. Those three appraisers will then determine the fair market value for improvements the city has made to the property.

This is the second time the Lions have told the city they want to exercise the option. The first was in June 1974 but the civic club backed off after the city commissioners at that time informed the club it would have to follow through legally, that the city wouldn't voluntarily give up the property.

There is another provision in the lease agreement which would allow the Lions to reclaim the property if the city fails to keep up the buildings and pool in good order but the Lions haven't mentioned that this time.

In 1974, then-president of the Lions, Bert Ward, said one of the reasons the Lions wanted the land back was because the pool had been in a state of disrepair, and closed by the Palm Beach County Health Department, for two years previously.

The pool still hasn't been repaired, although the city has been moving on the problem in recent months.

Sanders said Monday a recent study by Barker, Osha and Anderson, the city's consulting engineers, was called off after the engineers found some leaking valves. Those valves were repaired by the Richmond Company and Sanders said he is now waiting for the engineers to get back to the pool.

"Nothing is happening right now," the city manager said, "but right now, no one seems to know where the problem is and how to repair it. It's a technical problem and all we're waiting for now is for Barker, Osha and Anderson to complete their study."

The last word from the city commission on the subject, which has come up on an on-again-off-again basis for the past five years, was to find out how much it would cost to repair the pool.

Estimates for putting the pool back in operation have ranged from $30,000 to as high as $60,000 over the years and the commission has traditionally been opposed to spending that much to refurbish the facility.

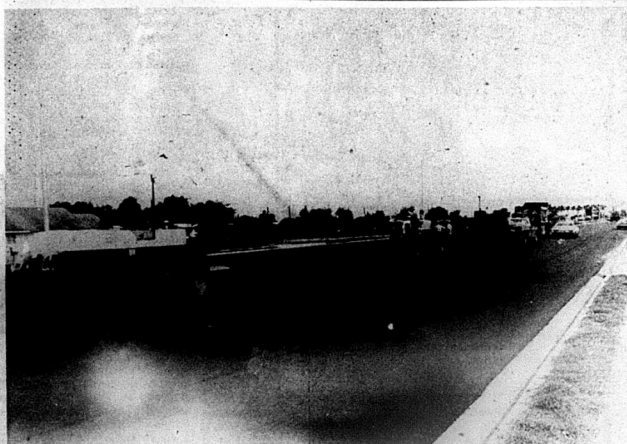

More recently, however, under the prodding of Commissioners William Grear and Tom Altman, with Commissioners Kenneth Harris and Aubrey Farmer tentatively agreeing, the commission has indicated it was willing to go ahead with the repairs.

Mayor Ralph Kirk has consistently gone on record opposing the repairs at any cost, saying he would rather see it turned into a rose garden.

At the moment, the city has no pool in operation, both the Municipal and Lake Shore Swimming Pools being closed by the county health department pending repairs.

The commission acted Monday night, however, to spend the $12,000 bid by Richmond Company to replace the filters at the Lake Shore Pool.

Until the current fiscal year, the city was required under the bond issue which financed the pool's construction, to set aside funds for repair and upkeep of the pools in the franchise tax fund. That no longer holds true, however.

Road crews push work on SR80

SMOOTH BUT CONFUSED was the driving on SR 80 between Belle Glade and South Bay Monday when work crews opened up the westbound lane all the way through for the first time since construction started on the four-mile project. On-site DOT engineer Frank Weatherholt said Tuesday it looks as though the actual construction will be completed by the Aug. 1 deadline he set not long ago, although the striping probably won't be finished until Aug. 15. Weatherholt said the stretch on North Main Street to Hooker Highway will be completed about the same time and DOT engineers in Fort Lauderdale said plans are going ahead for a four-laned SR 80 east to 20 Mile Bend, with funding set for that project in next fiscal year.

on budget retreat

Commission sets a first for setting city financing

BELLE GLADE—The City Commission will take the unprecedented step this summer of preparing the municipal budget in a single three-day session instead of the traditional series of evening meetings which stretch over about three weeks.

Despite considerable objections when the idea was first broached by City Manager Robert Sanders, the commissioners unanimously decided Monday night they want to go review the budget over a single weekend, tentatively set now for the evening of July 22, all day the 23rd and most of the day of the 24th.

The only point at which the commissioner is finally balked when they brought the "budget retreat" under discussion Monday was leaving town. Sanders suggested the commissioners should go to Lake Placid or some other place to hold the meeting, explaining several weeks ago this would allow them to work undisturbed.

Commissioner Aubrey Farmer emphatically said during the June 27 commission meeting, however, he would not leave town to prepare the budget.

Farmer repeated his stance Monday night and added he would rather not work on the weekend, preferring to work three nights during the week instead. He said he would meet on the weekend, however, if the other commissioners couldn't make it during the week.

Sanders said he has used the budget retreat idea in two other cities he has managed in the past and it has worked better than a series of night meetings.

If the city manager and the commissioners are able to keep on the schedule Sanders has outlined, they will be able to complete the budget review in approximately one third to one fourth the time normally spent in the past.

According to Sanders' agenda, the commission is expected to complete the job in only 15 hours of actual meeting time while past budget sessions have lasted five to six hours per night, for as many as three nights a week spread over three to four weeks.

Pure Joy

PURE JOY was the name of the plane and the game Sunday when the stubby wings of Pitts Specials flashed in the Glades sun as fliers from all over the state competed in aerobatics at Palm Beach County Glades Airport. About a dozen of the diminutive daredevils rolled, looped, split-S'd and Immelmanned their way through the clear-blue sky for the approval of the judges and the gape-mouthed awe of land-bound spectators.

South Bay election kicked off

SOUTH BAY—The 1977 election year got underway Monday when two candidates qualified to run for the seats now held by Commissioners Jay Smith and Billy Wells in the Sept. 6 election.

The qualification period opened Friday but it wasn't until Monday afternoon that Thomas Adams qualified for Group One and Mrs. Doris Sanford Davis of 465 Eilon Ave. qualified for Group Two.

Should the incumbents decide to run, Adams will be matched up against Smith and Mrs. Davis against Wells.

This will be Adams' second attempt to gain a commission seat. He lost to Mayor Don Tanner last year in an attempt to get that seat.

Adams is a councillor for the SPEDY program in South Bay and has been active in trying to get a more comprehensive city recreation program for some time.

Adams is a lifelong resident of South Bay and he said he is interested in a variety of improvements to the city, including the addition of a bank, a park and a library, as well as expanded recreation for both children and adults.

"We're concerned about conserving energy and water," he said, "but we're overlooking the fact the people we're conserving for are the young people. We need to get the younger people involved and educate them so they can achieve their goals."

Adams said Evelyn Dunning is his campaign manager and Evelina Styles is his campaign treasurer.

Mrs. Davis, a teacher at the Gons Elementary School Exceptional Education Center, said this is her first time to attempt to get a political office.

"I'd like to see a number of things done," Mrs. Davis said, "particularly improved housing in the west area. A lot of the housing out here has been allowed to run down. I've been taking a look at

Belle Glade and I feel we have a chance to get federal funding for rehabilitating private housing in

see ELECTION P7

DORIS DAVIS declared herself the first candidate to seek the Group Two seat in the upcoming South Bay City Election, following the first candidate in Group One, Thomas Adams, by two hours.

I received a rather interesting invitation in the mail the other day...an invite to attend the 50-year Golden Jubilee Celebration of the Grand United Order of Palbearers of America, Inc. Really, I did.

Never having heard of the organization before, it was amusing to learn the convention will commence July 18 and continue until the 15th in Hollywood with Lodges 1, 4, 22, 24, 34, 78, and 96 participating.

Included in the agenda is a Youth on Parade, Talent, and a Crowning of the Queen.

All Palbearers Members are requested to attend. But I was invited, according to the note.

Since my grandfather is a mortician, I guess I know as much about palbearers as the average fellow. These are the guys you see lugging the casket and deceased into and out of the church before and after the funeral, then giving a repeat performance at graveside.

But an association of palbearers?

Funerals have palbearers and honorary palbearers. Are the honorary palbearers eligible for membership? Or just what makes the average, run-of-the-mill palbearer eligible?

And just what are the membership requirements? Guess a guy has to be a sort of "professional" palbearer to qualify. Does that mean he must have two hauls a week for a month or what?

The "talent" portion should be entertaining. Guys showing the two-handed, double haul lift and others demonstrating the one-arm over the head carry. Trotting, of course, would be ruled out. But points would be earned for the stately walk.

Stumbling could be disaster to the well heeled palbearer team and time trials could last a while.

Then there is the crowning of the queen. Of Palpersons. Can't let our male egos get out of hand. More and more Palpersons are showing up at the funerals of the liberated.

The queen will be judged on several counts, including beauty, ability to stride without wiggles, and muscles.

Guess the palperson teams will demonstrate their talent, and a team trophy will be given. Immediately afterward, individual judging will be done on the members of the top team to determine the Queen of palpersons. Ability to lift a casket singlehandedly will be a factor in the judging.

Then there is the Youth Division, or Youth on Parade. That's right, put those youngsters in training early. Lifting weights helps, but walking with books on their heads is even better. Balance is essential. And teamwork imperative.

The business sessions should also be interesting. Matters to take up should include the lack of depth of handles, quality construction in the industry, and a history session dealing with pinewood boxes.

Palbearers need to get together and lobby for protection. Insurance companies would be quick to get into action offering group coverage for skinned shins and bumped elbows. Got to be careful, though. Never can tell when a fully-insured member will be approached by a casket-chasing shyder.

The possibilities of such a conversation are endless. The naming of the Grand Palbearers and his court should be a highlight.

Complete with pictures and biographies of the candidates. Voting will be done by secret ballot, placed in a slot cut into the top of a casket.

The ballots themselves will be obituary releases with names of the deceased line up to designate the member's choice.

There should be an "experience" session with the palbearer telling of the best experience while on duty being awarded a trophy with a casket on top.

It's great. The more I think about it, the more I want to go. Too bad I've got to work instead.

And I know the palbearers would take this all in stride. For beneath those somber expressions beat hearts of pure bronze.

The B-1

When President Carter announced his decision a couple of weeks ago to stop production of the supersonic B-1 bomber in favor of the cruise missile, he left one interesting question hanging.

Since the cruise missile is air-launched, and considering the condition of America's B-52 fleet, which is rapidly leaving behind the popular "aging" description for the more appropriate "senile", one can only wonder how the peanut farmer intends to use missile.

Has anyone heard of a large government order for Cessna 172's lately?

Suing the suer

Well, it had to happen, finally.

In Fort Pierce, Florida, a jury has awarded an orthopedic surgeon $175,000 damages in his lawsuit accusing a former patient and his lawyer of suing him without grounds.

The judge in case, Royce Lewis, calls the case totally unprecedented and the doctor's lawyer claims the verdict eventually will lower insurance rates by reducing "frivolous" lawsuits.

JUDGE LEWIS SAID the case "plowed new ground" for every lawyer and doctor in the United States.

If the verdict is upheld in the appeal, its impact could reach beyond the two professions. For instance, insurance companies, say one reason auto insurance costs so much is that so many "ungrounded personal injury claims" are filed that the companies can't fight them all.

Dr. John Sullivan of Vero Beach was sued in 1971 by James I. Terry, of Ft. Pierce, who complained that when Dr. Sullivan set his broken arm, the steel rod implanted to help it heal was one inch too long.

THE DOCTOR'S INSURANCE company wanted to settle. But Dr. Sullivan insisted he had not been negligent and he chose to fight the case.

On the day Terry's suit would have gone to trial his attorney, Otis Parker, dropped the case. Apparently they had hoped, as so many do, for a settlement out of court. With a settlement, they preferred not to fight.

Dr. Sullivan then sued his former patient, as well as the Parker law firm of Fee, Parker and Lloyd. He charged "malicious legal prosecution." After a week-long trial and five hours of deliberation, the jury returned the $175,000 verdict.

That's a good phrase - "malicious legal prosecution." It can cover a lot of territory. Yes, it could apply to all kinds of lawsuits, including alleged slander, alleged conspiracy, etc.

Straight from Bill Gunter

Automobile Insurance Legislation
I have received a great number of questions in the last few days regarding provisions of the automobile insurance legislation which became law July 1. This week, I will answer those questions most frequently asked about this law.

If you have any questions or wish to voice your opinion on any subject, please write "Straight From Bill Gunter," Room 58, The Capitol, Tallahassee, Florida, 32304.

Q: Am I still required to carry private passenger automobile liability insurance?

BILL GUNTER: No. As of July 1, you are no longer required to carry liability insurance. You will still be financially responsible for any accidents that you cause, however. If you are at fault, you could be sued and without insurance you could lose everything that you have.

Responsible drivers will continue to carry as much insurance as they can afford. You should give this matter careful thought before deciding to drop your liability insurance. You can save some on your premium costs, but the risks can be great.

Q: What insurance coverage am I now required to carry?

BILL GUNTER: Under the new law you must carry only $5,000 Personal Injury Protection coverage, commonly called no-fault insurance. This will pay for injuries to yourself, your spouse and members of your household no matter who is at fault in an accident.

It currently pays 100 percent of all reasonable medical expenses and 85 percent of lost wages. Effective Sept. 1 it will pay 80 percent of medical expenses and 60 percent of lost wages. You may file suit to recover the balance.

Q: I understand that as of Sept. 1, 1977, I can deduct the required $5,000 Personal Injury Protection coverage by taking a deductible. Is this correct?

BILL GUNTER: Yes. You may take up to a maximum $4,000 deductible in your Personal Injury Protection coverage. This should reduce your premium costs, but again, you should give this careful consideration.

In the event of an accident you would have to pay the first $4,000 in hospital and medical expenses before your Personal Injury Protection coverage would come into play, and you would receive no benefits for the first weeks during this period.

Looks like the skunk ape might have met his match.

Seems the smelly slowfoot (last sighted along with a UFO between LaBelle and Immokalee on SR29 by a local deejay who'd been working a party) cornered a wampus cat imported into the area by a recently retiree from Kansas and they had a fearsome set-to Sunday night up between Fort Mayaca and Sand Cut.

Charles Edward Pickett, who wrote under the nom de plume of Curtail Coon during his long years as editor and publisher of the Kilkenny, Kansas Flumgeogon Gazette and Bumble Bee Budget there, told me he imported the wampus cat when he retired to Bare Beach where he moved for the cool summers, warm winters and dry climate last March.

Now a wampus cat, for those who ain't familiar with the critter, is a cross between a wildcat, a badger and a rabid loo wolf. He's meaner'n sin and a crocagator and about as elusive as the well-known skunk ape and Pickett said the cat escaped from his T-1 steel cage a couple of weeks ago.

And Pickett, who really likes to be called Curtail, said that's when he knew that sooner or later there was bound to be a meeting between the wampus cat from Kansas and Florida's own skunk ape.

"I didn't say anything at first," Curtail said, "because I didn't want to alarm the countryside. I thought I could trap the cat again, even though this one is the only one ever captured. But I guess you better tell the people in the Glades to mount some kind of guard over their chicken coops and cattle."

"Matter of fact, women, children and strong men the gonna have none too safe with the wampus cat on the loose," he went on, "and the skunk ape, if he's as peaseable as I understand he is, had best see if he can't side with the couple of crocagators in the area."

I told him the skunk ape and crocagators were figments of Johnny-hugger drunk windheads but he said the wampus cat was supposed to be the figment of someone's imagination too, that a lot of people in Kansas don't believe it ever really existed.

"But how do you explain the wreckage left behind at Opie Haversacker's bar house," he asked, "or the fact little Prunelle Packenham's hair turned white and all her teeth fell out after saying she saw the cat? We don't have any Tasmanian Devils I ever heard tell of in Kansas."

I didn't know exactly how to take that but Curtail said something else that has me even more concerned than the wampus cat. He said he was going to start up a new daily newspaper to cover the whole Glades area.

Now, that kind of competition is enough to get anyone thinking but what really has me intrigued is the name of the paper. I thought Pickett had a perfectly good name in the Flumgeogon Gazette and Bumble Bee Budget but he said he reckoned not that he'd sold the paper in Kilkenny and the new editor is keeping the name and he didn't want to repeat himself in Florida.

Curtail said he reckoned he'd name the Bare Beach paper the Wabuska Mangler in honor of his hometown. That didn't make much sense to me and I pointed out his new home is Bare Beach, not Wabuska, wherever the heck that was.

That's when he told me the name of the paper was the Wabuska; the name of his hometown is Mangler, Mississippi.

Well, sir, I knew I had him then. He'd done made me suspect his veracity by then and since Bill hails from Mississippi, I checked with him and he said sure enough, there are more tales up in that area than you could shake a stick at.

He wasn't too worried about the competition though. Said Pickett is such an ornery cuss he riled up enough people in Mangler that he flat cooked his goose.

Said he finally left town one day, just before time to go to press when a Holstein bull wrecked the forms on his Washington hand press. Seems the bull had been trained to attack printing presses by an enraged citizenry.

City accepts fire engine bid

BELLE GLADE—The City Commission decided Monday night to buy a new fire engine but not before arguments between two of the competing bidders threatened to flare into a different type of blaze during the regular commission meeting.

After a lengthy discussion over provisions of the warranty and delivery time offered by two of the seven bidders, the commissioners decided to accept the recommendation of the city manager, which was to overturn the recommendation of the fire chief, and accept the lowest bid.

That bid was submitted by Jack Cocks of Orlando for $47,743.66, only $98.34 lower than Chief A.E. "Peter" Webb's choice of Municipal Equipment, also of Orlando, which bid $47,842.

As Webb pointed out in a letter, the slim difference in price left the warranty provisions and the time it will take to deliver the new fire truck as the main considerations to make a decision on.

As pointed out by Municipal Equipment sales manager, Wayne Henderson, Municipal's bid spelled out that a man would be on duty 24 hours a day to make any repairs needed during the engine's first year with the city and that the stated delivery time was 120 work days compared to 180 to 220 for Jack Cocks.

On the other hand, Jack Cocks representative Arthur Eiserman pointed out his delivery time was from the time of the order while Municipal's time began from the time a chassis could be found.

Eiserman also said Jack Cocks also provides 24-hour repair service and said he would write a letter to that effect by Tuesday.

Census Bureau to take employment survey

Local representatives of the Bureau of the Census will conduct a survey of employment in this area during the work week of July 18-23, Thomas W. McWhirter, Director of the Bureau's Regional Office in Atlanta, announced today.

The survey is conducted for the U.S. Department of Labor in a scientifically designed sample of approximately 70,000 households throughout the United States. Employment and unemployment statistics based on results of this survey are used to provide a continuing measure of the economic health of the Nation.

For example, in May the survey indicated that of the 97.2 million men and women in the civilian labor force, 90.4 million were employed. The Nation's unemployment rate was 6.9 percent, virtually unchanged from the 7.0 percent recorded in April and substantially below the recession peak of 8.9 percent reached in the second quarter of 1975.

Information supplied by individuals participating in the survey is kept strictly confidential by law and the results are used only to compile statistical totals.

Interviewers who will visit households in this area include: Mrs. Doris Rosenberg, Mrs. Betty Garriga and Mrs. Selma Leavitt.

Katz is Outstanding Airman

WICHITA, Kan.—U.S. Air Force Technical Sergeant John E. Katz, son of Mrs. Mary L. Royals of Pahokee, has been named Outstanding Maintenance Airman of the Month at McConnell AFB, Kan.

An aircraft fuel systems supervisor, Sergeant Katz was selected for professional skill, duty performance and exemplary conduct. He is assigned to the 384th Field Maintenance Squadron, a part of the Strategic Air Command.

The sergeant, a 1961 graduate of Pahokee High School, attended Kansas Newman College, Wichita, Kan. His wife, Georgia, is the daughter of Mrs. Helen L. Kinsley of 1410 Main St., Bellevue, Neb.

Mrs. Watts on board

BELLE GLADE—Mrs. Carolyn Watts, homemaking instructor at Glades Central High School, has been appointed to the State Future Homemakers of America Board of Directors, according to information received from Miss Allie Ferguson, State FHA/HERO Advisor, Home Economics Education.

Mrs. Watts will serve as the FHA/HERO District IX Advisor through April, 1979.

Additional donations sought for fireworks

PAHOKEE—According to Pahokee Chamber of Commerce secretary, Mrs. Veronica Harrington there is now a deficit of $500 remaining to pay for the fireworks that were displayed on July 4th.

Donations can still be made to the Chamber. Those making donations that were not listed in last week's paper are the Summer's Family, Pahokee Rotary Club, Dr. Hatton Family, Pahokee Harbor, Peddler's Cart and Camayan Farms Co.

Youths attend rally

PAHOKEE—A total of nine Pahokee people along with the First Baptist Church music director, Ismael Gonzalez and summer youth worker Pam Ballard motor-ed to Tampa on the week-end of July 1st, to attend a Super Summer Youth Rally.

While in Tampa they heard speeches by Max Cadenhaden and singing by the Amos Brothers. Overnight accommodations were made at the University of Tampa. All returned safely and exhausted on Saturday afternoon.

In attempt to shut down route

Trailways cites "lack of profit"

CLEWISTON—A representative of Continental Trailways told the Lake Okechobee Area Traffic Council Monday night the reason his company attempted to discontinue a bus route into the Glades recently was "lack of profit."

Paul Doane began his talk by seemingly attempting to "sell" bus travel, citing how safe and efficient it was and giving the Council members tips on how to trace lost shipments.

"If we could get more people to ride buses," he said, our problems would be solved and the country would save on energy."

He said the line is "putting a heavy accent" on packed freight and noted the company is increasing charter rates.

Council president Pat Drake asked him why Trailways had attempted to have the route discontinued to the Glades and Doane said it takes 20 people per bus ride to break even, but admitted he did not have a breakdown on how the service was being used in the Glades.

He was asked if Trailways had attempted local promotional efforts of their services and said a man will be working in the area sometime in the future.

Morris Fletcher told him Trailways could increase their business "triple" if they would promote locally. Fletcher also praised the Belle Glade busmaster, saying he is the best man the company has had in that city in years.

The group also discussed "cartage" with Doane, who told them Trailways was working to have "door to door" delivery within its major terminals.

Following the discussion, the Council voted to adopt a resolution urging Trailways to initiate cartage in its major terminals and asking that its local terminals be encouraged to adopt their own form of cartage.

In other business, the Council voted not to charge dues to its membership this year since funds last year have not been spent. The only individuals or businesses to be charged will be new members.

Dues vary from $25 to $125 depending on employment.

The council will be working to bring new members into the organization by contacting businesses throughout the Glades.

Those attending included Broman Compton, Morris Fletcher, C.K. Miller, Vic and Gini Shemwell, John Click, Pat Drake, Helen McCormick, Jewel Crane, John Cowart, and Stella Pirkle.

Belle Glade Church of God sets revival

BELLE GLADE—Evangelist Chip Pace, of Atlanta, Ga., will conduct a revival at the Church of God 301 S.E. Ave., E. in Belle Glade. The revival will begin Sunday and will continue through July 24, according to the Pastor, the Rev. Roy Miller.

Rev. Pace, a graduate of Lee College, Cleveland, Tenn., is a dynamic young minister of the gospel, Rev. Miller said. A recent revival he conducted in Lakeland was very successful with close to 100 converts.

Pastor Miller, said his church congregation is fasting and praying for a spiritual awakening in Belle Glade. Services are nightly at 7:30 and on Sundays at 10:50 a.m. and 7 p.m.

The public is invited to attend.

Woman is charged in robbery

BELLE GLADE—A Belle Glade woman was arrested Sunday for grand larceny after being accused of stealing $170 from a 77-year old invalid man.

Donny Gamble, 77, of 733 S.W. Ave. E., told police officers Mary Jane Fulton, 22, of 116 S.W. Sixth St., took the money out of his trousers, telling him she was going to put it on a table. She then told Gamble she was going to her grandmother's home.

Later, when Gamble looked for the money, he said it wasn't there and he went to Ms. Fulton's grandmother's home to try to find her. Finding she wasn't there, he notified the police.

Softball begins second half

PAHOKEE—The second half of the Pahokee Men's Softball League got off to a roaring start on Tuesday, July 5. The first half was won by Wedgworth. The first place team of each half of the season has a chance for the overall trophy by winning the end of the year playoff.

The first game of the second half was an upset as Hilyer and Len defeated Wedgworth 12-5. Andy Ballard was three for three for Wedgworth and Mike Frazier was three for three for H & L.

Homers for Wedgworth were by Gary Bradshaw and Tom King and for H & L, Freddie Clements, Buddy Sizemore, Mike Frazier and Willie Lee.

Thursday's second game had Foodway soundly defeating Hutton Bros. 25-13. In what was Foodway's best showing of the season, they fielded only nine players. Skip Lanham knocked two over the fence and Roger Dunnaway added one. The only home run for Hutton was by Vice Bush. Bush was four for four for Hutton while Skip Lanham led Foodway with five for six.

In Thursday's games, PPI defeated Cham Air 13-2 and Union beat FBC 28-12. The only home run in these two games was hit by Dale Morris.

Shoplifting results in battery of officer charge

BELLE GLADE—A local man managed to parlay a simple shoplifting charge into considerably more trouble than anyone bargained for when he attacked the officers attempting to arrest him.

Arthur Isaac, 20, of 79 Everglades St. in Belle Glade, was stopped by Mike Royal of Royal's Department Store in Glades Plaza when Isaac tried on a $12 pair of shoes and walked out of the store Saturday morning.

Royal called the police station and held Isaac for the officers but when Patrolmen Dale Fortney and L.D. Grieve answered the call and told the youth they were arresting him for retail theft, Isaac told them he wasn't going to the station and, "went into a karate stance".

In the struggle that followed, Fortney reported, Isaac knocked him down and caused a one inch laceration on Fortney's knee. Isaac was finally subdued by Grieve, Calvin Lamb and Royal.

Belle Glade Police Detective J.R. Eberle, who investigated the incident, said later he notified the Community Mental Health Center of Isaac's "abnormal behavior" but also charged the youth with resisting arrest with violence, and two counts of battery on an officer, besides the retail theft charge preferred by Grieve.

Bridal shower honors Miss Robin Wilson

Miss Robin B. Wilson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Wilson of the University of Florida AREC Campus in Belle Glade, and the bride-elect of Joseph D. Black of Brownsburg, Indiana was honored with a bridal shower on June 30, at 8 p.m. at the home of Sue Vulgamore at Stillwell Road in Belle Glade.

Several floral arrangements of pink, tangerine, brilliant yellow roses highlighted the shower's theme "Roses for Robin". These lovely roses were gifts from the garden of C.D. McClure and their arrangements created by Mrs. C.D. McClure.

A center-floral arrangement of pink and brilliant tangerine roses and white mums, lace fern accented the lace-covered service table. A "star-fire" cut-pattern crystal punchbowl with matching crystal trays and cups flanked the silver trays of mixed nuts and mints.

Lime-frost punch and refreshments of party cake with pink rose trim, added to the theme, and were served by Kendra Snow, Sue Vulgamore and Geneva Whitehurst to the guests.

Corsages of white carnations with pink satin trim were presented to Robin and her mother Rosemary, by the hostesses, in addition to the hostess-gift of a wall unit electric mixer.

Games were directed by Gail Walston and prizes were won by Robin Wilson and Kay R. Phillips. Attending and honoring the bride-elect were: Rosemary Wilson, Tricia Wilson, Teresa Weatherington, Donna Throop, Linda Zimmer, Frances Nelms, Christina Nelms, Ginger Atkins, Betty Atkins, Lora Rimes, Cathy Hart, Paula Pate, Cindy Conway, Sandy DeVane, Sarah Plunkett, Jay Zitter, Kay Phillips, Betty Bulfinch, Sue Vulgamore, Mae Pope, and Sonja DeKenzende.

Hostesses honoring the occasion were: Inez Jackson, Geneva Whitehurst, Kendra Snow, and Gail Walston.

More than 1,500 messengers representing churches from all sections of the state are expected to attend the five day session of teaching and training.

Girls are surprised with birthday party

BELLE GLADE-A surprise birthday party was given for Maria Escobar and Rebecca Rodriguez, by their friends, Sunday at the fellowship hall of First Baptist Church in Belle Glade.

Rebecca Rodriguez is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Rodriguez of Belle Glade. Rebecca turned 15

Monday. Maria Escobar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. Escobar, also from Belle Glade. Maria turned 15 today.

Both girls and their families are active members of the First Baptist Church.

Local Baptists travel to Panama City

The Congress is a School of Methods of which the Rev. J.L. Stephens of Fort Myers is Dean. The 30 classes curriculum are under the instruction of excellently prepared persons. Among those serving on the faculty is the Dr. J.B. Adams of Belle Glade, in addition to his regular class work, the minister is to serve as a Lecturer of Three ministerial group, who will give the Doctrinal idea on Evangelism. Among others from Belle Glade moving will be Mrs. Amelia Houston, President of the Senior Woman's Auxiliary No. 1 and Mrs. B.W. Knight, President of the Junior Women Auxiliary. The two leaders will also preside over their Summer Boards meetings during which time the programs for the annual session of March 1978 will be arranged.

Several special events will highlight the seasonal week including the Welcome program featuring a large chorus of beautiful singers on Tuesday evening, and the President's Hour Friday afternoon when Dr. Parker will address the Congregants. The classes are designed for both young and adults of all ages, but of the ministerial and laity ranks. The meeting will continue through Sunday afternoon closing with a Mass Mission Service.

Minister in exchange program

COCOA, FLA.-Rev. Arthur Dasher rector of the Church of the Holy nativity in Pahokee and St. John's Episcopal Church in Belle Glade, has made a month's exchange in ministry.

"For an Anglican, with the historical and emotional ties to the Episcopal churches have with the Church of England, it's like going back to the rock from which we sprang," Dasher said of his assignment as rector of St. Mark's Episcopal Church of Woodthorpe, England during July.

Simultaneously, its British rector, the Rev. David Bartlett, will take Father Dasher's place at St. Mark's in Cocoa. The trade-off will be complete, with the two clerics taking over each other's pulpit, rectory residence and personal cars.

The exchange, for which Father Dasher said he had been "looking, planning and saving for 15 years."

was arranged through a mutual friend, the Canon of Coventry Cathedral, the Rev. Alan Warren. When the Canon visited Central Florida on a 1975 preaching mission, he was entertained in the Dasher's (then) Winter Garden home.

Although Episcopal church services are termed "almost identical in both countries, Father Dasher said he feels that an extra dimension of the personal and cultural understanding is fostered among worshippers in the two countries through the ministry exchange.

City may get new park

BELLE GLADE—City Manager Robert Sanders told the City Commission during its regular meeting Monday he has been negotiating for a 12.5 acre plot of land at the city airport to be used for a recreational area.

Sanders said he has received an initially receptive response when talking to Glades Correctional Institution Superintendent Kenneth Turner about the city buying or leasing the land at the north end of the airport's north-south runway.

The land is state-owned but is administered by GCI, Sanders said and in response to a question from Commissioner Kenneth Harris, said he didn't believe negotiating for the property would hurt chances of the city getting another state-owned tract for the construction of a solid waste disposal facility.

The main part of the property lies 200 feet east of the end of the north-south runway, leaving a 200 foot buffer zone between the aircraft traffic and the proposed park and a finger of land which would allow access to the park running across the end of the runway from US441.

To give an idea of what could be done with the property, Sanders displayed a drawing he had had made up, although he was quick to point out this was tentative.

Shown on the drawing are two baseball or softball diamonds, two tot lots, two tennis courts, a parking area, a concession stand and restrooms.

The commission directed Sanders to pursue the project further. In other action concerning land, the commission agreed to allow the city building inspector to draw up letters of agreement for property owners who want the city to mow their grass.

Commissioner William Gear brought the matter up when he asked Sanders what was being done on the enforcement of the city ordinance requiring property owners to keep the weeds and grass on their property cut back.

"I just returned from vacation", Gear said, "and there are too many areas that have grown up. The town is looking like it used to."

A BUDDING CHRIS EVERT, Christy Wall smashes the ball under the approving glance of instructor Michael Webb at Lyons Park. Webb and Kenneth Robinson teach tennis to beginning and advanced players of all ages, including these 6-12 year olds, as a daily part of the city's summer recreation program.

Book program begins

BELLE GLADE—The Belle Glade Municipal Library opens its summer reading program Monday, July 25, with a puppet show, "Monster Magic", in the multi-purpose room of the library.

The theme of this year's summer reading program will be "Book Trek into New Worlds" and will be presented through a program of films, crafts, and games designed to stimulate reading.

The program is designed for two different age groups. Children four years of age through the second grade will meet on Mondays and Wednesdays, 2:00 to 3:00 p.m. Children in the third through sixth grade will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays at the same time.

The Book Trek will last four weeks, ending Thursday, August 18.

Burglar arrested

BELLE GLADE—Police Monday were still investigating an early Sunday morning burglary in which the suspect took a pair of pants belonging to Claude Butts, 46, of 517 S.W. Ave. B, apartment 23 while Butts unsuccessfully chased him down the hallway.

Patrolman Tomas Valenzuela reported Butts told him he was asleep in his apartment and woke up to find the thief leaving his residence. Butts told Valenzuela he chased the burglar down the hallway of the apartment building but lost sight of him.

A witness told the police he had seen the man check out several apartments before reaching through an open window in Butts' apartment and turn on a light, then step back, apparently to see if anyone was awake.

New rates make saving electricity more important than ever.

WE'RE CONCERNED.

The state regulatory agency has concluded that FPL's new rates will be based on a conservation incentive: If you use more than a base amount of electricity per month, the rate per kilowatt hour will go up. We're concerned, because your bill may increase more than you expect. We want our customers to have the facts—and to have ample opportunity to determine wise energy management.

AFTER YOU USE 750 KILOWATT HOURS IN A MONTH, THE RATE PER KILOWATT HOUR GOES UP.

According to the regulatory agency's order, FPL will, for the first time, have an "inverted rate" structure. This means that the first 750 kilowatt hours you use in any month will be at one rate, and all electricity you use above that, during the monthly billing period, will be at a higher rate.

Kilowatt Hours	Old Rate	New Costs (Inverted Structure)	Increase	New Costs, If Historic Rate Structure Applied	Increase
750	$ 27.27	$ 29.01	6.4%	$ 31.36	15%
1200	40.78	46.96	15.2%	46.90	15%
2000	64.82	78.87	21.7%	74.51	14.9%
3000	94.65	118.75	25.2%	109.04	15%
4000	124.89	158.64	27%	143.56	14.9%

All the above figures include applicable franchise fees.

Using our historic rate structure, the rate increase recently granted because of inflation would have amounted to about 15%. This new structure works so that the heavier user will pay a substantially higher increase—up to 27%.

On the other hand, the minimum user will pay a 6.4% increase. The 1,200 kilowatt hour user will pay about 15% more, and anyone using over 1,200 kilowatt hours monthly will pay increases from 15% to 27%.

Now it's even more important to practice wise energy management to help control your costs. We don't like higher bills any more than you do, so we want to help you conserve in every way we can.

FREE, OUR FOLDER ON "HOW TO SAVE MONEY ON YOUR ELECTRIC BILL."

It's loaded with tips, hints and ideas on ways you may never have thought of using. Stop in at any FPL office and ask for your free copy today.

Sugar price problems aired before Bergland

GAINESVILLE—Glades sugar grower and producer problems were among those U.S. Secretary of Agriculture Bob Bergland heard about Thursday and Friday here at the Southeastern Coastal Agricultural Conference.

Nelson Fairbanks, vice president manager of the Florida Sugar Cane League, told Bergland President Jimmy Carter's price support program for sugar may be helping the large industrial users of sugar but has not and isn't expected to help the sugar producers.

"As you know," Fairbanks told Bergland, "U.S. sugar producers have operated without any specific program since Jan. 1, 1975. In the absence of a program and government leadership to develop one, we saw prices spiral in late 1974 and 1975 to record levels and since that time we have experienced disastrously low prices."

"This occurrence was predicted," he pointed out, "and the boom-bust cycles will continue until there is an effective supply management program brought about by our government's action."

Fairbanks noted that following the recent failure to reach an accord on an International Sugar Agreement in Geneva, the price of raw sugar, which has been below the cost of production for the past two years, has dropped even lower.

"The average domestic price for calendar year 1976," he said "was 13.31 cents per pound and this year the price has ranged from 9.75 to 13.40. During the last half of June, the price averaged 10.13."

Fairbanks cited a recent University of Florida study which indicated the average cost of production in Florida to be about 15 cents per pound for raw sugar. Studies in other areas indicate even higher costs.

He recalled President Carter's "strong commitment" to the negotiation of an international agreement expected to provide greater stability of world sugar prices and supplies and his rejection of a recommendation by the U.S. International Trade Commission for more restrictive limitations on imports, choosing instead a two cents per pound price support whenever prices fall below 13.5 cents per pound.

"For all practical purposes," Fairbanks reminded Bergland, "negotiations for an International Sugar Agreement have completely broken down and the price has steadily declined since the conference adjourned."

"The program as announced by the President," he said, "has not helped sugar growers who are still selling sugar from the 1976-77 crop. Market indications are for a further decline in sugar prices. At current market prices the authorized payment of two cents per pound would give producers only about 12 cents."

Fairbanks told Bergland the "real beneficiaries" of the President's payment program, which for the short term helps, assure the continuation of low prices to growers and raw sugar processors, are the large industrial users of sugar.

"The drop in sugar prices since mid-April," he said, "has resulted in a 'windfall' profit to these users since consumer prices have not been reduced."

He said approximately 1 million tons of sugar is now used in the United States every month, with 75 per cent being consumed for industrial uses.

"A drop of 3.5 cents equals $70 per ton," Fairbanks said, "and would therefore result in a 'windfall' of more than $50 million per month to such users."

The sugar spokesman also pointed out that when sugar prices peaked in late 1974, these same industrial users were quick to raise the prices on their products but have been slow to lower their prices with the drop in sugar prices...and in some cases, the prices have continued climbing.

"Finally, Mr. Secretary," Fairbanks said, "we want to leave you with this most important question in the hopes you will carry our message back to the President."

"Why should unlimited imports of sugar be permitted from countries subsidizing sugar production while many other agricultural commodities such as dairy, cotton, peanuts, etc. have very restrictive import limitations?"

Pawley services held

MIAMI—Funeral services for Eugene Pawley, a former Belle Glade resident, will be held at noon Saturday at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Coconut Grove. Pawley died Sunday in Graham, Tex.

Pawley, who served as advisor to the president of Talisman Sugar Corp. south of South Bay, supervised the China desk of the Office of Special Services (OSS) in Hong Kong during World War II.

He moved to Graham, Tex. in 1970 and founded and became president of Pacific Oil Co. He was a member of the famed Metropolitan Club of New York City. He was a resident of Belle Glade from the 1950s through 1970.

Survivors include his wife, Barbie (Elma) Ellsworth Pawley; two sons, Eugene Pawley, Jr. and Steven of Miami; a brother, Elwood T. Pawley of Coral Gables.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the American Cancer Society.

Sits on Washington committee

Local woman helps select FBI chief

BELLE GLADE—When President Jimmy Carter chooses the next director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, which could be at any time, a former Belle Glade resident believes, despite the political "experts" she will have some influence on that decision.

Mary Ellen Wall, the daughter of Ralph Kidder, was one of the nine members of a special committee who recently recommended a list of five men to President Carter to replace Director Clarence Kelley, who is expected to retire in the near future.

Mrs. Wall said she has been told by the so-called experts the President will probably not pay much attention to the committee's recommendations, that the whole idea of the committee was "window-dressing."

"But I don't believe he would have gone to the trouble of appointing a group of laymen like that without at least intending to pay attention to the people they recommended," she said.

Mrs. Wall, who played the piano for the local Rotary Club for three years while attending Belle Glade High School, was home last week visiting her family and friends.

She, her husband, Jim, and their two sons were expected to leave Belle Glade to fly back to their home in Elmhurst, Ill., a suburb of Chicago, on Friday.

The ten days in May the committee met and interviewed the 50 nominees for the job, "was certainly an experience," and she learned quite a bit about the Bureau.

"I feel quite good about the work the FBI is doing and the people involved in it," she said. "Their attitudes are quite good and they're struggling to understand the criticism of the past."

The former Belle Glade resident also had high praise for Clarence Kelly, the current FBI director. She said Kelly sat as a member of the committee and provided considerable input on the qualities the committee should look for in his replacement.

"In the second meeting we held," she said, "Mr. Kelly gave us a 20 minute talk on the qualifications for the job, filling us in on some of the more recent legislation affecting the Bureau."

Mrs. Wall found, for instance, that Congress had recently placed a limit of one ten-year term for any director in the future. She said Kelly informed the committee the director is also the only member of the FBI who is exempt from a new mandatory retirement age of 55.

She said the committee members also agreed a law degree would be helpful (all FBI agents have degrees in either law or accounting) but not necessary and the search for a new director wouldn't be limited to persons involved in law enforcement, although all the candidates were involved somehow in the judicial system.

"We had well over 200 names which were submitted," Mrs. Wall said, adding these names were generally submitted by someone other than the nominee.

"We finally narrowed down the field to 70 persons we wanted to interview," she said, "but some didn't know their names had even been submitted and some of those weren't interested."

Following President Carter's instructions, the committee narrowed down the list to five names during ten days in May of interviewing the candidates.

The final names submitted to the President included those of two men involved in law enforcement, both with FBI experience, two judges and an attorney.

She said she has heard reports, which she didn't place much belief in, that President Carter has since narrowed the list still further to two names. She also said Carter could come up with a completely unknown (to her) name.

One thing she said disappointed her was the paucity of women's names. "A very few women's names were submitted," she said, "but we didn't interview any of them. None of them had reached that point in their careers yet."

"I certainly hoped some women could be considered," Mrs. Wall said, "and there are some female special agents who have been hired in the last five years."

A politician in her own right (she was the first Democrat elected to the DuPage County Board of Directors when she ran for that office three years ago) Mrs. Wall and her husband were among the early supporters of Jimmy Carter for President in the Chicago area and they worked in his Illinois campaign.

"We were in Belle Glade in February 1975," Jim Wall, who is a member of the Illinois Democratic Executive Committee and now a member of the National Democratic Executive Committee, said, "And we stopped in Plains to talk to Carter on our way back north."

"Things were different then," he said. "Then, he was courting us because a lot of people were still asking, 'Jimmy, who?'"

Mrs. Wall said the President met with the nomination committee during its first meeting, which took place in the Oval Room of the White House. Meetings after that took place in the Cabinet Room.

New grant guidelines initiated at junior college

[EDITOR'S NOTE: The Belle Glade Herald is proud to make a new offering to our readers in the form of a weekly column on the news at Palm Beach Junior College. The new column, beginning this week, is written by the campus librarian, Alice Zacherl.]

GRANT DEADLINE SET FOR PBJC STUDENTS

By Alice Zacherl

PBJC has set up new guidelines for grant recipients this year in an effort to afford control over federal funds. Students who are attending college this fall under the BEOG (Basic Educational Opportunity Grant) program must register at the Glades campus by Friday, August 5. Officials at the college are concerned that only six of the eligible BEOG students have pre-scheduled by this date.

Ms. Garza, secretary to Freddie Harrell, Guidance Counselor, said students who do not meet the Aug. 5 deadline will have to personally pay for their tuition when classes start. They will receive reimbursement much later in the fall.

The BEOG Grant is a federal aid program designed to provide financial assistance to those who need it to attend two or four-year educational institutions. The amount of the basic grants vary, based on the student and his family's financial resources. The awards range between $200 and $1,000, but the average a full time student receives at PBJC GLADES is about $400 a term which he receives in two payments throughout the term. Application for the grant and eligibility for receipt of funds is determined at the Department of Health Education and Welfare Office in Washington, D.C.

Registration for the Fall Term continues daily at the National Guard Armory. A total of 52 classes are being offered; 32 classes at night and 20 day classes. Although BEOG students are required to register by Aug. 5, regular registration is open to and including Aug. 15. Classes begin on Aug. 17.

South Bay spoils Wallis try for undefeated season

By Karen Hansford

BELLE GLADE—A brilliant comeback effort by South Bay Growers spoiled Wallis Pharmacy's goal of an undefeated season in Glades Women's softball action last week at the Belle Glade Little League-Jaycee ballpark.

The victory also overshadowed the showdown of the first inning when undefeated Wallis slipped second-place Local 2152 9-4 for Local's second loss. Local 2152 had bowed to Wallis 12-10 in an earlier meeting.

Last Thursday's game was one of offense, with the Wallis batters taking advantage of the pitcher for five walks, then Annette Davis hit a double into centerfield and scored on Frances McLeod's single for five runs in the top of the first inning. Janet McKinley, Jerry Johnson and Sherri Herring brought in three for South Bay Growers to trail by two.

Adding six runs in the next three innings to Wallis' four, the home team tied the score as Glenda Norwood crossed the plate. The teams ran neck and neck in the fifth inning, with Wallis scoring three runs and South Bay making another three to make it 12-12.

It appeared as if the Wallis players had the game in the bag when Ronnie Pike was forced home on a walk, then Cheryl Waters slammed a double into left field, knocking in three more runs for Wallis to lead by four.

Undaunted, the South Bay girls bounced back with a walk, two singles and then a double by Cecilia Sullivan to bring in three runs and the tying run on second with only one out.

Cary Wilson grounded out to shortstop for the second out, leaving only one more to go, when Janet McKinley hit a sharp grounder to third base and advanced all the way around the bases as Wallis threw the ball away from the winning run, pinning the loss on Wallis, 17-16.

One of the season's biggest showdowns took place Tuesday,

July 5, when top-ranked Wallis Pharmacy downed second-place Local 2152 for the team's second loss.

Local 2152 made a strong showing in the first inning with four points off runs by Sara Rives, Linda Mims, Wanda McMillan and Paula Anderson, while holding the Wallis batters to only two.

Both teams played top-notch defense in the next two innings. Local's centerfielder, Denise Morgan, snagged a long fly then aimed for homeplate as catcher Chris Zawadzki clutched the ball and tagged Ronnie Pike out for a double play. Wallis fielder Isabel Monti prevented a multi-base hit for Linda Mims of Local when she snared a fly on the right field line.

Wallis Pharmacy, struggling from behind, tied the score in the bottom of the fourth inning when Cheryl Waters crossed the plate and Altie Velez rounded the bases on Donna Akin's double. The go-ahead run came in the next inning when Waters doubled into left field, causing Kim Akin to score.

Going for two walks in the bottom of the sixth inning, Wallis added another four runs, two of them on doubles by Davis Velez and Karen Hansford. The latter was left on second when leftfielder Barbara Hartzog made a spectacular behind-and-over-the-head catch off Cheryl Waters' hit.

Helped by some fine defensive play, the Wallis players held all but one runner on Local 2152 to first base after the first inning, and allowed only nine runners on base, for the final score, 9-4.

In other games, Dixie Fried Chicken played its most superb game of the year Thursday night in a 24-2 trouncing of The Miami Herald.

In a sister against sister match, Tony Crandford, going four-for-six, walloped a triple into centerfield for Dixie Fried Chicken. Sister Marie Crandford of the Miami Herald team didn't fare so well, line driving into a double play in the third inning as the Dixie Fried Chicken defense held the runners to first and second bases in the first three innings.

Jackie Hyslop, along with Crandford, lined a triple into right field for Dixie Fried Chicken's six runs in the third inning.

Added to a previous two, Dixie Fried had an eight-run advantage and held Miami Herald again in the fourth inning when, with bases loaded, second baseman Louise Herald stopped a line drive by Kathy Hager and caught Jeannie Redd off second base for another double play.

Miami Herald's only score of the game came when Louise Herring drew a walk and Janie Priest reached first on an error, then both came home on Marie Crandford's hit into centerfield, which was bobbled by the shortfielder, giving the batter two bases.

Dixie Fried added two runs in the sixth and then broke loose in the top of the seventh inning for 11 runs, while holding Miami Herald, for its third win against four losses. Lynn Vann had smacked a double into left field for Miami Herald but, was left on second when Kathy Hager flied out to rightfield.

Following the Wallis Pharmacy-Local 2152 game Tuesday, July 5, the team of South Bay Growers took advantage of Glades Sugar's pitching problems and scored seven runs on eight walks and a single in the first inning, but the Glades Sugar batters came back with five, three of them on Julie Clements' triple.

The South Bay team drew another seven walks and went for seven more in the second inning as Glades Sugar changed to its third pitcher, Brenda Miller. Judy Sawyer added "Sugar's" lone run in the bottom of the inning.

Sherri Herring slapped a standing-up triple into right field in the next inning as South Bay tallied up five more runs for a score of 19-6. She added the twentieth run in the top of the fourth before Glades

Sugar took its turn at walking and drew seven walks for four runs. In the fifth and last inning of the record-length game, Janet McKinley wacked a double into left field for one of South Bay's four runs and the girls fended off a two-run rally by Glades Sugar to win, 24-12.

Glades Women's Softball League Standings as of 7/11/77: Wallis Pharmacy, six wins and one loss; Local 2152, four wins and two losses; South Bay Growers, four wins and four losses; Dixie Fried Chicken, three wins and four losses; Miami Herald, two wins and four losses; Glades Sugar, one win and five losses.

COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT BLOCK GRANT PROGRAM

NOTICE OF FINDING OF NO SIGNIFICANT EFFECT

Notice is hereby given that the City of Belle Glade, Florida, has prepared an environmental review record on the project, hereinafter described and has determined that said project will have no significant effect on the quality of the human environment.

Project: Demolition and Clearance of vacant dilapidated structures generally located throughout Target Area 1, 2 and 3, located on the North by South West Avenue E, on the South by the canal lying within the unimproved right-of-way of South West Avenue G, along the West by South West 10th Street, and the East between South West 5th and 6th Streets. Target Area 2 and 3 are bounded along the North by South West Avenue A, on the South by South West Avenue B, along the West by the railroad tracks, and along the East by South West 4th Street. The 1977/78 budget for this activity is $2,000.

Project: Code Enforcement including trash and junk removal and housing inspections. This project may also include minor repair and fix-up assistance to residents of Target Area 1, as described above.

Project: Rehabilitation Program including grants and/or loan subsidies to rehabilitate substandard dwellings of lower income residents of Target Area 1, as described above, as well as the construction of a new Maintenance Education Center. The 1977/78 budget for this activity is $146,000.

Project: Land Bank Program including the purchase or lease of opportunity purchase parcels for open space/recreation and/or housing sites in Target Area 2 and 3, as described above. The 1977/78 budget for this activity is $83,000.

Project: Relocation Program including demolition of substandard dwellings not economically suitable for rehabilitation and provision of housing replacement payments to their qualified lower income residents. This activity will be undertaken in Target Area 1, as previously described. The 1977/78 budget for this activity is $83,000.

Project: Public Improvements including replacement and relocation of inadequate sewer lines in Target Area 1 and South West 5th through 8th Streets between South West

Legal Notices

Avenue A and F. The 1977/78 budget for this activity is $87,000.

The findings of no significant effect are based on the following:
While the above described programs have significant benefits to the immediate neighborhood, the environmental impact is not considered to be of major significance within the context of the total human environment, in light of the achievement of local community-wide goals; or in the context of regional, state, HUD, or national goals or concerns, considering the scope and scale of proposed activities to be undertaken.

Environmental review records respecting said projects are available at the Community Development office, 1224 S.W. Avenue B, Belle Glade, Florida, between the hours of 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday when the same may be examined. No further environmental review is proposed to be conducted on said projects, and the City of Belle Glade, Florida, intends to request the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) to release funds for said projects.

Comments regarding the environmental impact of the above described project must be submitted to the City of Belle Glade, City Hall Annex, Community Development Department, not later than fifteen days after the date of this publication.

Miss Keen is bride of Ronald Bruce Rimes

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth V. Keen of Clewiston, announce the marriage of their daughter, Beverly Ann, to Ronald Bruce Rimes, son of Mrs. Bonnie Olden of Belle Glade, on June 18 at the St. Margaret's Catholic Church. Father Armando Belado officiated at the double ring ceremony. Harold Keen, brother of the bride, served as altar boy and Mrs. Alden Wyse was the organist.

The front of the church was decorated with two standing brass candelabra holding white candles and two large bouquets of pastel colored carnations and pompons, finished with greenery. Potted palms were placed on each side of the altar to complete the setting.

Bridal Party
The bride, escorted to the altar by her father, wore a floor length gown of white satin bridal satin, handmade for her by her mother. The gown was designed with an empire styled waistline and featured an "a-line" skirt which flowed into a chapel length train in the back and was finished with a border of scalloped lace trim at the hemline. The bodice was of white bridal satin with an overlay of white lace and styled with a "v-shaped" neckline. It featured long fitted sleeves which ended at the wrists in lace cuffs. Her waistlength veil of sheer illusion, bordered in a lace trim scalloped edging, was attached to a beaded headpiece. She carried a white Bible on which a white rose spray, finished with greenery and white satin ribbons, was placed.

Miss Emily Pullen served as maid of honor. She wore a floor length gown of a woven polyester fabric, featuring small clusters of pink flowers on a blue background. Her headpiece was a large white picture hat styled with a band of the same material as her gown and she carried a basket arrangement of orchids.

Bridesmaids were Miss Debbie Whitacre and Mrs. Pamela Gunderson, sister of the bride. Their gowns were styled similar to the maid of honors. One was in the colors of dark pink flowers on a pink background and the other gown was of pink flowers on a green background. They both wore large white picture hats with bands made from the same material as their gowns.

Best man was Dicky Sweet of Belle Glade. Ushers were Dr. Kenneth Keen, D.V.M., brother of the bride, and Harold Gunderson.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Keen wore a floor length gown of woven polyester material in a multi-color floral design, featuring tones of blue and lavender. She wore a corsage of white roses and carnations. Mrs. Olden, mother of the groom, wore a floor length gown of a light colored orange material and a corsage fashioned from white carnations.

Reception
Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the parish hall of the church. The room was decorated in the bride's selected colors of blue, green and pink.

Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Jan Albers and Mrs. Elaine Strickland. Miss Dianna Albers was in charge of the brides book. For a wedding trip to Marco Island, the bride wore a brown knit pants suit styled with a multi-colored top.

The couple is now residing on Flagpole Road.

The new Mrs. Rimes is a graduate of Clewiston High School and is employed by the Everglades Animal Hospital in Belle Glade. Mr. Rimes is a graduate of Glades Central High School in Belle Glade and is employed by the United States Sugar Corporation.

FAFF club celebrates birthday

PAHOKEE—With 34 people in attendance, the FAFF (Fun after 55) Club met at noon, July 5th, to enjoy a delightful luncheon in the fellowship hall of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee.

The tables were decorated with patriotic colors, lovely napkins and tiny flags, adding to the festive air of occasion. Mr. J. L. Tyson, guest speaker, discussed the Constitution, Bill of Rights and Declaration of Independence, focusing special attention on one signer of the Declaration. This was John Witherspoon, the only ordained minister of the group.

Mr. Tyson related some interesting information concerning this seldom-mentioned signer who, through his writings, continues to have an influence upon people.

Several guests were presented with one new minister. The club expressed regret at losing a faithful member, Mrs. Mamie Mock, who has contributed much to the life of the FAFF Club.

The next meeting will be held August 2nd at the Fellowship Hall of the First Baptist Church of Pahokee.

Pahokee FFA attends convention

PAHOKEE—The Pahokee High School Future Farmers of America (FFA) attended the annual Florida State FFA convention in Tampa, June 13 - 16, at the Holiday Inn.

Two Pahokee members received the State Farmer's Award - Dean Hodges and James Sweat - and the chapter as a whole received a superior rating.

Among other activities, the chapters elected new state officers.

Those who attended the convention were: Dean Hodges, Vernon Sullivan, Walter Rashley, James Sweat, Darrel Douglas, Mark Owens and FFA advisor Noma Norman.

Pahokee Library is closed

PAHOKEE—Due to the installation of new carpet, the Loula V. York Memorial Library will be closed through Friday, July 14th. Mrs. Dorothy Harvey, Librarian, said the library will reopen Monday morning.

Linda Lively weds John Leffler

Linda Lively, daughter of Mrs. Edwin M. Lively, 100 N.W. Ave. F, and the late Mr. Lively, became the bride of John Edward Leffler, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Leffler, in a double ring ceremony Tuesday evening June 14 at The Church of The Good Shepherd in Maitland, with the Rev. Arthur Dasher officiating.

Miss Lively was given in marriage by her brother, Edwin M. Lively Jr., of Belle Glade.

The church organist, Mrs. Ruth Enslow, played nuptial music before the ceremony. The processional was Trumpet Volunteer by Handel and Hail Thee Festival Day by R. Vaughan Williams was the recessional.

As the recessional began the bride and groom turned and handed to each mother a long stemmed yellow rose. Two large arrangements of white daisies, white roses, baby's breath and fern with two five branch candelabras graced the altar.

The bride wore a gown of white qiana jersey outlined by silky Venice lace at the high fitted neckline, the sheer yoke and around the demure short sleeves. Lace bordered the tunic overskirt which dipped down toward the back extending to a chapel train. A cloud of silk illusion attached to a qiana covered cap edged with matching lace formed her wedding veil. Her bridal bouquet was a cascade of shasta daisies, yellow rosebuds and baby's breath. Her only jewelry was small pearl earrings, a gift from the groom.

Her roommate, Cynthia Chisholm of Winter Park was her only attendant. Trapunto design accented her lovely floorlength polyester gown of jonquil yellow which featured a square neckline, empire waist and cap sleeves. She wore a tiara of daisies in her hair and carried an arrangement of yellow daisies, white rosebuds and baby's breath.

Thomas Welch of Mansfield, Ohio, served as the groom's bestman. Stephen Lively, cousin of the bride, and Douglas Allen were groomsmen.

The bride's mother wore a floor length, long sleeved pink cut-work lace gown. The high neckline was trimmed with matching chiffon which extended in flowing streamers over each shoulder. Pink shoes and a small feathered hat of varying shades of pink completed her ensemble. She wore a corsage of shasta daisies.

The mother of the groom was gowned in a full skirted floorlength long sleeved aqua qiana jersey. It featured a lace bodice, high neckline and a cummerbund of qiana. Her sandals were silver, and her corsage was of shasta daisies. A reception was held in the church parish hall immediately following the service for guests and relatives. The bride's table was covered with a beautiful white lace tablecloth with a full floor-length skirt of organza.

Mr. and Mrs. Leffler

Two three-branch silver candelabra flanked the three-tiered wedding cake topped by a miniature bride and groom and two white doves. Wreaths of white daisies, baby's breath and fern surrounded the base of the cake and candelabras.

Mints and nuts were served with the wedding cake. Champagne punch bowl by Mrs. J.W. Patrick of Winter Park and Miss Sara Trolinger of Orlando. Mrs. L.G. Lively, aunt of the bride and Mrs. William Koch, Delray Beach assisted.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Ackerman, Mansfield, Ohio, Mrs. Thomas Welch, wife of the best man, Col. and Mrs. Laban Lively, Tampa, Mrs. Earle Jones, Tallahassee, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Collinsworth, Belle Glade, Mr. and Mrs. William Koch and Bill Koch, Delray Beach, Mrs. Ed Warren, Deland and others.

Mrs. Leffler graduated from Belle Glade High School, attended Palm Beach Junior College, graduated from Cauder Fashion College of Atlanta in Fashion Modeling and received her Teacher's Certificate in ballet and modern jazz from Imperial Studios in Palm Beach. She is presently a member of the cast of the musical, "The Day the Circus Comes To Town," at Circus World.

The groom graduated from high school in Mansfield, Ohio, attended Ohio State University, served in the United States Navy for two years, studied tap dancing in Ohio and Miami and is a tap dancer of note. He is also a member of the cast of the musical "The Day the Circus Comes To Town" at Circus World near Haines City.

The bride chose as her travel costume, a two piece multi-striped beige polyester dress. It featured an overblouse, V-neck, stand up collar and short sleeves. She wore a rust scarf which accented the rust stripe in the dress. Her shoes and bag were navy blue.

After a short honeymoon to the east coast of Florida, the newlyweds are at home in Orlando.

"I DON'T SEE ANYTHING"

THERE IS ONLY ONE WAY TO SEE THROUGH A CAMERA

Did you ever try to look through a camera from the front side? Yes, most of us have... out of curiosity... but we would not even consider trying to take a picture in such a manner. There are many though, who go through life never giving themselves a chance to really see God. In order to see God, one must look at him through faith. Attend church regularly, seek God where others can help direct you in your search for God.

"So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

The Church is God's appointed agency in this world for spreading the knowledge of His love for man and of His demand for man to respond to that love by loving his neighbor. Without this grounding in the love of God, no government or society or way of life will long persevere and the freedoms which we hold so dear will inevitably perish. Therefore, even from a selfish point of view, one should support the Church for the sake of the writers of himself and his family. Beyond that, however, every person should uphold and participate in the Church because it tells the truth about man's life, death and destiny; the truth which alone will set him free to live as a child of God.

Golden Ram Class of '57 holds local reunion

BELLE GLADE—Members of the Belle Glade High School Class of 1957 held their 20-year reunion on June 25 at the Belle Glade Municipal Civic Center.

A group of approximately 90 well-worn adults gathered in the evening to relive their frantic, fun years of high school. Dining by candlelight under a giant ceiling streamers of blue and gold pin-wheel and dancing to the disco-jukebox music of the Golden '50's. Fun was poked, flash-backs were read, lights dimmed and tales were swapped between classmates and teachers.

Joan Johns Davis welcomed the class and presented the informal program. The introductions of the special guests were made by Kay Rives Phillips. The class was presented with large '57 yearbook programs enclosing resumes from each classmate designed by Carl Hayes.

A 1957 Chevrolet, complete with life-size paper teens with flat-top crew-cuts and pony-tails waving a "Welcome Class of '57" spotlighted the entrance. Inside, a large jumping cheerleader doll, complete with megaphone and a golden ram hung suspended over the jukebox on the centerstage with another floating ribbon banner of "Welcome Against Class of '57".

A family picnic followed the dinner and dance reunion Sunday at the Aubrey Farmer Pavillion at the City Marina at noon. Boat rides on a party boat were conducted by Charles Corbin. Entertainment of country-pop music by the Delta Blue Boys was provided. Water-skiing and swimming were part of the day.

Special guests included Principal and Mrs. Frank Hobson, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lovell, John G. Abbott, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Nicholson and Mr. and Mrs. W.K. Fortenberry. Members attending were Charles L. Corbin, Wayne Mock, Joan Johns Davis, Jean Johns Charles L. Corbin and Charles Royal. A picture of the reunion will be published when it becomes available to The Belle Glade Herald.

Bridal shower honors sisters

BELLE GLADE—This past Sunday July 10 beginning at 3 p.m. at the St. Philip Benzi Catholic Church Hall in Belle Glade, a luncheon and bridal shower was given for the future brides Teresa and Telva Medina, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. W. Medina of Belle Glade.

The luncheon and shower was sponsored by Caridad Corvo, Luisa Camero, Mirtha Hernandez, Mercedes Hernandez, Eloina Nunez and Dolores Bigoa.

The future brides were dressed alike with very summery light green dresses and their corsages of white lillies with the ribbons making bows. Mrs. Hernandez future mother-in-law of Telva wore a pink pant suit with an orchid for a corsage.

Mrs. Camero the future mother-in-law of Teresa, wore a black pair of pants and a striped blouse in black and red. Her corsage was an orchid. Mrs. Medina, the mother of the brides, wore a black pant suit and complementing it was her orchid corsage.

After the lunch was served the brides-to-be opened their presents that included housewares for their new homes.

Your eyes determine desirability of food

By Dian J. Litinsky
Registered Dietician

We eat with our eyes! Our eyes frequently determine what our stomach is going to get. Our eyes influence our taste buds. If it does not look good, our eyes will convince us that the food will not taste or smell good either. So to begin with, the food on the table must look good.

Appearance cannot stand on its own. There is taste, smell, and texture of the food. Sweet, sour, bitter or salty are the four basic tastes. Certain foods are identified with each of these tastes, (or a combination). It all depends on what taste a particular food has and also the strength of the taste, whether we like or dislike the food. And there is the smell. Remember the pleasant aroma of baking bread or of fresh brewed coffee? These pleasant odors can trigger our taste buds. That is why, when we have a cold, we tend to lose our appetite - because we have lost the sense of smell.

Everybody likes ice cream. It does not really look like much and there is very little to smell but ice cream is pleasing to eat because it is so smooth. So, texture is necessary for a food to be appetizing.

There are other things that influence what we eat besides food appearance, taste, smell and texture.

That is our culture. Our heritage and tradition dictate certain food preferences. As an example, many Americans prefer white bread and white sugar because these foods were status symbols. In the past, while bread cost more and only the affluent could afford the extra money. White bread actually did not taste better than dark bread but, because it cost more, we convinced ourselves that white bread had a better taste.

There are other cultural influences: the South has fried chicken and New England has clams and oysters.

Religion too plays an important role in food choices. Some religions have special holiday foods and, in others, certain foods are even prohibited.

Food must do more than look, smell, taste and feel good. It must be good for our bodies! We need certain foods to stay healthy. We must concern ourselves with nutrition. Good nutrition means a balance of nutrients. Nutrients are proteins, fats, carbohydrates, minerals, vitamins, and even water. At this point we have to get a little technical so we can understand the term "nutrients".

Protein-necessary for tissue growth and repair; found in plants and animals.

Carbohydrates-used by the body for energy by breaking into simple sugars; found mostly in plants.

Fats-used for energy; found in plants and animals.

Minerals-part of the structure of every cell; help maintain body fluid balance; found in plants and animals.

Vitamins-essential for body functions in using protein, fats, and carbohydrates; found in plants and animals.

Water-part of all cells and fluids in the body; found in water, beverages, plant and animal foods.

Energy-the capacity to do work; protein, fat and carbohydrates provide energy; the vitamins and minerals help the body utilize the energy.

Calories-measure of energy in food; the more calories in a food the more energy it provides.

All in all, the person most influential in determining what will be on the dinner table is the family food purchaser and the family cook. Food appearance, taste, smell, texture, tradition and, very important, the money budgeted for food, all influence what the cook buys, prepares, and serves.

Since the cook plays such an important role in the eating habits of the family, the cook must also assume the responsibility of the health of the family-health as it is affected by nutrition.

Quite a responsibility and challenge when you look at the entire picture. The cook must make sure the meals look appetizing, the food must smell and taste good, the texture must be just right, the food should be high in nutrition to keep the body healthy and all this must be done with a budgeted amount of money and time.

In the next few weeks we will be discussing nutrition and nutrient needs. Should you have any questions about what we discussed so far, or, in fact, any questions relating to food and nutrition, please let me hear from you.

Sign Of The Times

The theme of the Bicen-tenial exhibit in the Smithsonian Institution's National Museum of History and Technology is "Nation of Nations." It's designed to show two things: how people, ideas and objects of every kind from every part of the world flowed into America from 1620 to 1976;
and how American ideas, products and services have, in turn, gone out into the world.

The exhibit, which will be on display for the next five years, includes a Holiday Inn sign, which represents a food and lodging system which began in Tennessee in 1952 and subsequently expanded to include more than 1,700 inns in 48 countries and territories.

IT'S THE MOST!

The world's longest commercial buses are made in Indiana for use in the Middle East. They seat 212 people and are 76 feet long.
The world's longest computer-communications network is the Holiday Inn chain's Holidex system. With its 300,000 miles of lines, the computerized network can make reservations within a few seconds at more than 1,700 inns in 48 countries throughout the world.
